FRIDAY, SEPT. 19, 1913.

Winter and colder weather will be welcomed if only for one thing—the passing of the transparent skirt.

The Republicans were in a majority at the primaries held in Wayne county on Tuesday. This is evidence that a third party outside of the old line parties is of short life.

The express companies will not contest the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission, effective Oct. 15, entailing a reduction of present schedules by between 16 per cent. and 25 per cent.

Father Hans Schmidt, the priest of St. Joseph's church, Brooklyn, who is in the Tombs charged with the murder of Anna Aumuller, stood revealed Wednesday, after Inspector Faurot's investigations resulted in the arrest of his associate, Dr. Ernest Muret, as a criminal jack-of-all-trades.

COFFIN SHAPE FOR POISON TABLETS.

Cleveland, Sept. 14.—An ordinance to compel manufacturers to make all poisonous pills and tablets in the shape of a coffin will be introduced in the Cleveland Council by Councilman M. E. Bieder.

Attention has been directed in this department before to the subject of making poison tablets of such a shape that they might be distinguished by their form in the dark, and we are glad that the time is at hand when the change is to be made.

COST OF LIVING IN ENGLAND.

A discussion of the cost of living occupied most of the British Association's time at Birmingham, England, recently. Two women, Mrs. Frances Wood, of Lister Institute, and Miss Mathison of the Birmingham Social Settlement, carried off the honors for research into the family budget of the poor.

They showed that workmen's wages in Birmingham ranged from $4.32 to $6 per week. The majority have meat only for Sunday dinners, except occasionally a few pieces in stews.

Professor Leonard E. Hall, London Hospital, declared many people of Great Britain were semi-starved through mistaken forms of diet. He explained the value of recently discovered "vitamines," the absence of which from white bread made it less nourishing than black or whole meal bread in which they are present.

COMING BACK.

The vote throughout the county at Tuesday's primary election gave conclusive evidence that the Republican party is as strong, if not stronger than it was before the November election last year.

The people have awakened to the fact that they have been worshipping an empty shell. They have no party. They are "men without a country," so to speak. So naturally they turn back to the old party standard as the Prodigal Son returned to the house of his father.

The Bull Moose is about to follow on the "long trail." The Progressives were in a measure a party of one man. It was made of Roosevelt enthusiasts. Now, one man's popularity, or power to move the crowd, is not the most substantial foundation on which to build a permanent political party.

Rabbits Are Plentiful.

From all sections of Pennsylvania come reports of a great increase in the number of wild rabbits. They are encountered on the highways in close vicinity to small towns and many are making homes near farm houses and farm buildings.

Rabbits are very plentiful in Wayne county.
